conscious beings about the path to Divine fulfillment.*

ESCAPE TO IMMORTALITY

- THE STRUCTURES OF IMMORTALITY

The physical body is a very small part of the whole structure of a functioning being. There is so much more to your functioning being than just this body. Once you leave the physical plane, the realm in which you will reside depends a great deal on the energy, focus, and momentum generated when you were alive on earth.

- THE ENERGY LIGHTING YOUR BEING

If you could achieve total vision so you could "see" all of yourself, you would see that you are made up of chords of music, spectrums of light, and an array of magnetic fields. These are the containers of the energy you are growing into. We are light and sound, and much closer in our make-up to stars than the animals we live with.

- ENERGY MANAGEMENT

Putting spirit level value in your spirit level bank account can bring you a quality existence in the here and now, and allows you to invest in a very bright future for yourself. Remember, LIFE is not just the physical body. Life is the quality of aliveness in the energy, velocity, and perception of your consciousness.

- Plus ... AVENUES & DIRECTIONS BETWEEN LIVES, CONTAINERS OF CONSCIOUSNESS, LIFE PROGRESSIONS ... and more.

VORTEXES & LIGHTS: THE GATEWAYS TO HEAVEN

- FUNDAMENTALS OF INNER VISION

You are not spiritually blind. You have just forgotten how to control your sense of sight, or your image generating facility. It is very easy to relearn how to control this, but you will probably have to practice at it for a while. An illusion in inner vision is simply an inner experience you do not understand.

- VERTICAL PATHWAYS

The spirit realms of life, when one is attuned to them, possess a much greater reality than the physical world does. The music of life is more abundant and played more intently. The vertical path gives one access to the fire of life, and access to the knowledge of how to manage the fire. Knowing how to drive the fire of life gives the individual being freedom. Freedom into realms of life your dreams do not even know of.

- SPIRITUAL ADVENTURES

Your temporal mind has no past life memory, because it is a part of the physical body that you attained new and unused. It is the spirit mind that remembers and its information is very subtle. Relax and dare to let your imagination remember.

Life is eternal. There is no other kind. Your imagination can tell you what you have been doing before this life. Your temporal mind cannot be expected to have information about something that it has not experienced.

- Plus ... RISING ABOVE YOUR PARADIGMS, HORIZONTAL PATHWAYS OF THE MIND, CONCEPTS BEYOND BELIEF ... and more.

THE JOURNEYS OF ASCENSION

- A MECHANICAL APPROACH

Not only is it possible to know that life is eternal, it is also possible to move your consciousness into the eternal parts of your being. There are faculties in your being that you may not even know exist. Moving consciousness allows you to live a much fuller and much more rewarding life while you are still in residence in the physical body. Thus, you are empowered to live dynamically and multi-dimensionally within the everyday flow of reality. You can do this in your own life.

- SOUL ORIENTATION & SPIRITUAL ALTITUDE

Soul orientation can be done consciously through an internal conscious practice much like meditation, but a consciously active type of meditation. One can learn how to control the subtle command signals effecting perception, and thus control spiritual altitude. Spiritual altitude is one of the most valuable factors these realms offer. Spiritual altitude allows you to have a more thorough picture of the reality you live in, and also to see beyond to the greater reality we, as developing, growing beings, are moving towards.

- THE COMMUNITIES OF BEING

"Who are you?" How many of the disguises and defenses of your social personality do you dare remove to find your core being? Do you like the person who looks back at you in the mirror? Do you have an identity? Who are you? This universe we live in is really just a womb. You are a divine being, but you are the finite embryo of what you are to become. It is possible to get control of this process in this lifetime and master the talents allowing you to go home to the real life, to the community of divine beings as a mature divine being in your own right.

- Plus ... THE LAWS OF ASCENSION, FREEDOM & THE KUNDALINI, A WAY INTO TOMORROW ... and more.

MOUNT SHASTA – THE VITAL ESSENCE

- SEEING BEYOND THE PHYSICAL VEIL

Only a very small part of the vibratory frequencies of creation stimulates the eye, allowing us to see physically, but actually we see very little. Tension robs us of much of our inner vision, and if you reject a picture your inner vision shows you it may not show you that again. Spiritual blindness can be accumulative. You may already have “seen” things as a child and you were told it was just your imagination. Your imagination is your image-generating faculty. This visualizing device is not exclusively connected to your physical eyes.

- SPIRITUAL ATTITUDE

We may search for reality in the world about us, but possessions come and go, loved ones come and go, lifetimes come and go, and still, we search for the solid ground of reality. The emotional information the chakras give us often promises an avenue to the great happiness, but always eventually leads to disappointment, heartbreak, and despair. Reality continually eludes us, because we look in the wrong direction.

- SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PARTHENON

Our physical world is located in a three-dimensional universe. The Silver Parthenon inside is located in a twelve-dimensional universe. Our three-dimensional universe is a very small part of the twelve-dimensional Universe of Universes. Certain structures in the greater universe have subtle powers in all the universes. One of these, the Silver Parthenon, is a vertical structure serving as a spiritual elevator.

- Plus ... LADY ON THE MOUNTAIN, WALKING THE PATTERN, THE STAR GATE ... and more.

THE ROAD TO LIFE

- THE LABYRINTH OF CREATION

Illusions need to be believed in, need to be taught, and need the support of believers in order to have any substance. Reality is that which exists when you believe in nothing at all, but are willing to consider evidence as life presents it. Understand, life is eternal. It is only consciousness that surges and fades, because in ourselves we do not understand the energy of consciousness and how to manage it so that the transitions from incarnation to incarnation will be much smoother.

- WISDOM & THE PURPOSE OF LIFE

Wisdom is what we have come here to learn. Money may well be the coin of this physical realm, but wisdom is the coin of the realm of the greater Cosmos, the universe of universes. Wisdom is that part of what you learn here that has eternal value. Wisdom is always transferable and applicable, because of its very nature it understands its situations and applications.

- COURAGE & THE VALUE OF LIFE

Courage gives life its value. You must understand here that we are talking about Life -- not a functioning human body. Courage gives Life its value, and if you value life, creation smiles upon you. So many cling to physical life, thinking it is of great value. But in clinging to their physical lives, they lose their hold on Life itself. There are so many things to fear, but the universe is mental and your fears are in your own mind. Control your own mind and there is nothing here to fear. A great deal of courage is control of the mind.

- Plus ... BELIEF SYSTEMS & THE MIND, FUNDAMENTALS OF EXPERIENCE, THE ELEMENTS OF ALIGNMENT ... and more.

THE VERTICAL PROGRESSION OF HUMAN EVOLUTION

- A NEW BEGINNING

There is up from the planet, and up from the star, and up from the galaxy, and up from this group of galaxies, and there is even up from this universe, all offering wonderful adventures and marvelous beginnings. When you have learned all you are meant to learn in the universe's School of Life there is even UP from the Universe of Universes. When one is going up through the spiritual regions, one comes to several transitions, where the tones change, the light is brighter, and there is a greater sense of reality. Each transition has brighter light, a new dawn, and much more DAYLIGHT.

- A SEARCH FOR REALITY

You must come to know your true self, but first you must learn how to wake up. The laws of reincarnation and the momentums of our finite existence seem to make it impossible to find the time to look within our own being. We are the slaves of time until we dare to be free in our own being. It is possible to be free of the learned thought processes of your mind, to be free of the emotional stories your chakras constantly present in your mind, to be free of the dreams the planet wants you to dream, to be free of the cycles of life the star would hold you to, to be free of the physical and conscious momentums of the galaxy, and it is possible to graduate from the School of Life, and be awake and free in the reality of life beyond the dream this universe conceived you in.

- THE NEXT ETERNITY

The purpose of this universe and all the elements of this universe of universes is that through a progression of living experiences, each individual element of life will learn how to live in full consciousness in those vast realms beyond the universe's high domain. It is necessary to learn how to manage the energies of immortal life in order to be allowed to become an immortal and inhabit those realms of life reserved for those who have learned to live at that level of life. We call those realms beyond the universe's high domain, the Great Happiness.

- Plus ... KEEPING UP WITH CREATION, SPIRITUAL FLYING IS EASY, END OF THE LINE ... and more.

THE SINS OF KARMA & THE DIVINE PROGRESSION

- THE AUDIBLE LIFE STREAM

The universe is a womb and you are the beloved embryonic child of the Master Creator. The Audible Life Stream is your umbilical cord, which will supply your divine conscious egg with the vital energy of life until you awaken enough to manage the energy of life as a divine being in your own right. If one learns to listen carefully, life has many things to teach. Being allowed to know about the inner Sound Current is a direct invitation to come home. Learning how to use it provides access to the ride. It is time now to come home.

- THE PERILS OF WORSHIP

Anything outside of yourself that you must believe in or be devoted to is not a part of your path to your divine birthright. You diminish the power of your consciousness when you give devotional energy away. In creation's unswerving reality, the only things here that are real are the part of yourself that is alive, the ringing sound within your being, and the path to your divine fulfillment. Give your devotion to the song of your own life, and you will prosper beyond your wildest dreams.

- THE VALUE OF VERTICAL LIFE

From pilgrim to guru to master to warrior to magician to wizard to god. All these lessons in life and about life are to teach you as a developing being how to live your life correctly in the reality beyond The Universe of Universes. You are responsible for learning the value of the vertical progressions in your life, but that information has hardly existed in this world for many generations. However, that vertical pathway is finally open once again.

- Plus ... SPIRITUAL ENGINES, ASTRAL COLOR LIMITATIONS, THE PROGRESSION OF BEING ... and more.

Graduate from The School of Life in this Lifetime

THE UNIVERSAL SCHOOL OF LIFE

THE THREE PATHS OF ASCENSION

In the School of Life there are three main categories of spiritual paths of ascension going up from life on a planet such as Earth, and each individual one may have supplemental variations of the basic path. The experience of life will teach us the laws of the path we are working on, if we but take the time to listen to what life is trying to teach us. Few listen, and thus many repeat life situations over and over, again and again. The first time a lesson is presented, it comes as easily as a gentle breeze. But if it is not heeded, succeeding presentations will be harder and harder until the being understands both the lesson and that creation is the ultimate judge of right and wrong action. Creation's momentums moving through eternity will go on, seemingly with or without us, as we choose. Although it is creation's intent that you learn life's lessons, you may choose how long it takes and how strongly they must be presented in order to register. It is interesting how we fight life's lessons, even though the life creation is intent upon giving us is far more wonderful and marvelous than our wildest dreams.

The Left Hand Path

The first path up inside is the path of law and order, right and wrong, correct behavior and discipline, and how to behave in a civilized society. This is one of the first things you must learn when you attain human level incarnation. We call this the Left Hand Path. On this path you learn about creation's laws, and that you must live and abide by them. You learn to appreciate justice and fair play. At this stage of your spiritual development, self-discipline is very important, and you learn that the laws of this path are non-negotiable. You must live by and master them to expand into future growth progressions. This is a big obstacle for many, but consider the lessons of life. The greatest asset anyone can have in this world is to be self-disciplined. If you are self-disciplined, you can have anything in this world you wish. A positive meditation program requires a great deal of self-discipline.

There are no jails in the upper regions of life. The jail we make for ourselves in the physical world is sufficient. Thus, in time, one comes to appreciate law, order, fair play, and justice. It is good to identify injustice, so long as one understands creation itself is in charge of metering out justice. Governments tend to teach the laws of this path; right and wrong, injustice and justice. Creation has laws, and it is important you learn and understand creation's laws. You may be able to justify your actions, but at this stage of your development creation will not listen. Hatha and Raja Yoga offer good progressions on this path. When you have developed a sufficient amount of good karma on this path you are ready for the next path of ascension.

The Middle Path

The second path is the path of philosophy and theology, which involves belief systems and religious practices. We call this the Middle Path. On this path you are usually involved with a faith religion in which a certain set of beliefs provide you with their set of progressions. Usually there is an intermediary such as a religious figurehead, savior, or possibly an embodied guru or master. Very often people get involved in other people's progressions on this path, to the detriment of their own. Much of the progress here is mental, and yet no real substantial progress is made until one learns how to get free of the temporal mind. This path goes a long way up, along what might appear as a stairway in creation. For those who are observant and listen carefully, there is also an elevator. One is treated to great wonders in the upper regions, and in what one finds within their own being as one grows in relation to this path.

One of the main lessons of this path is we are all brothers and sisters, and we must learn to love one another with true heart love. You will meet those you love many times, and in many ways, but you must also learn to let go. Love is something you give, not something you get. Human emotions provide great pleasures on this path, but they are also the chains that bind one to these realms of emotional and mental illusion. Believing in something does not make it real. Reality is that which exists and requires no belief at all. Faith religion is for the most part the provider of progressions on this path. Or perhaps it is that which prevents progressions. You must find your own way out of this labyrinth of beliefs. If what you are doing spiritually requires you to believe a philosophy or faith, you are involved in a Middle Path progression. Bhakti Yoga encompasses the progressions offered here, as well as the faith religions of Christianity, Islam, and Judaism, as well as Buddhism and Hinduism, to name a few. There is much to say and learn and argue about in all of this, which is good mental exercise. But in the greater Cosmos, philosophies and theologies mean little if anything at all. Remember, believing supports conscious illusion. For the true believer the day will come when some event or circumstance will catapult their consciousness into a different reality.

Creation has many awakenings for the spiritual pilgrim. Some spiritual awakenings can be rude, some can be very uplifting. Some spiritual awakenings can catapult consciousness into a higher mental velocity and related life experiences. Spiritual progressions would be easier if one could let go of old beliefs when creation decides to offer one the prospects of new horizons. If consciousness can learn to let go of the mind and see with its own devices, new beginnings are much easier to comprehend. Letting go of the paradigms of one's life is difficult to do, even when the new beginning has a much better future to offer the spiritual pilgrim. When you are ready to discover and develop your own true being, and become the master of your own life, you are ready for the next path of ascension.

The Right Hand Path

The third path is the path of individual ascent, the true path of ascension, the divine progression of the Creator. We call this path the Right Hand Path. On this path you must learn to get possession and control of your own being. You must also learn to leave behind the labyrinth of beliefs and attachments learned from the Middle Path. This path teaches you that you are the embryo of a divine being, but you must learn how to master the energies of the fire of life yourself. This path is also called the warrior's path, because you must fight for your own spiritual being in order to progress on this path. While getting possession of one's being is not very difficult, getting control of it is a much different situation. Again, discipline is the major key to the avenues of this path. You must learn to be yourself, not to play to the crowd; better to play to the man or lady in the mirror.

Within you is your divine child, and this part of your own being must be brought through life's perils and darkness into the true light of life. There are progressions beyond any guru, master, or religious figurehead on this path, for this path can take one all the way to becoming a divine being in one's own right. There is much to gain, to learn, to comprehend, but what one tends to see in one's finite life is what there is to let go of. If you would be a bird, free to fly on the winds of time, free in the ongoing adventure of being, you must learn how to let go of the tree. On this path you learn that 'all life is equal' in potential, and that each and every one of us is unique and special.

In addition, to travel this path you must be center stage in your own life, so you can truly discover, realize, and live your divine heritage. Not self-centered and conceited, but understanding your energy is yours to do with as you see life's circumstances, values, and opportunities. This is truly a path of practice, never one of devotion or belief. Many will claim to know the way, but the path is within your very own being. If you understand that practicing devotion to any other being is a very serious deterrent on this path, then Surat Shabda Yoga and Tantra Yoga offer good progressions here.

Yes, there are many temptations put out for the pilgrim on this path, but what could possibly be more valuable than the acquisition of divine life? For this path ultimately teaches you how to look all the Lords of Creation in the eye, not as an awed aspirant, but as a developed equal. You are the embryo of a Divine being. To live on that level of life, you must master the energies of that level of being. By mastering the fire of life, you can transcend the greater Cosmos and become a Divine being in your own right. You must learn to be a container of your own life energies. What you can contain of life's energies you can take wherever you go. Containing the energy, light, and fire of life, you learn how to power your own consciousness, thus realizing life is eternal. Through spiritual energy management, you can graduate from the School of Life. There is a way home, and the door is open. Follow the song of life towards the light of life and the magic moments will lead you home. There is a way ... to the Great Happiness beyond the One Light ... and to your own personal eyeball to eyeball contact with the Great Master Creator of the Universe of Universes.

AUDINOMETRY

The Avenue to Great Spiritual Wealth

The Audinometry program is a Right Hand Path, spiritual science, meditative system. It is a new bridge into the upper reaches of the Greater Cosmos. It is a bridge you build yourself, in yourself, for yourself. Yes, there is much before you to do, but it can all be done in this lifetime. We can help you, but you must do it yourself. Then it is yours, forever in and beyond this realm of being.

Meditation is a term like automobile, tree, or airplane, in that it is a general term and not a specific term. "I have an automobile" indicates only that one has transportation. "I have a Buick Roadmaster" gives specific information about the automobile and even implies information about the owner. In that manner, AUDINOMETRY is a very specific type of term for meditation.

With an automobile one can venture much farther into the physical world, with a great deal more convenience, than on foot. On foot, it is easy to know your way around an area that you can reach and return home from in a day or even several days. With an automobile, it becomes very easy to get lost in the physical world, and it is prudent to carry a map when venturing any distance from home.

Basically, there are three types of meditation; Passive, Devotional, and Active. They all involve spiritual movement. If you should practice a form of passive meditation, spiritually you are getting on a bus and going where the bus goes. This may not be what you think you are doing, but life does not provide us with the rules of the game; only experience does that. If you practice a form of devotional meditation, you are spiritually hitchhiking and, in essence, riding in someone else's car. There are many forms of devotional meditation, some of which may take you to a spiritual place you would like to be. But the ride is always expensive. Spiritually, just as physically, there is no free lunch. Whether you are spiritually riding the bus or hitchhiking, you are paying for the trip. While you may or may not be paying physical world money for the trip, you are very definitely paying spiritual world money.

In most instances, if you are practicing a devotional type of meditation, you are paying for the trip both physically and spiritually. "But," you say, "that's ridiculous, I don't have any spiritual wealth." Even the most rudimentary meditation produces some spiritual wealth. Most meditation systems produce, for the being practicing the system, a considerable amount of spiritual wealth. But doing the work (meditating) and rightfully earning the spiritual wealth does not mean that the value will be in your bank account when you get to the spirit level of life. The devout may well have already given it away, and in either case, whether on the bus or hitchhiking, riding spiritually is a very expensive thing to do.

There is no free lunch, and there are no free rides. BUT it is possible to make the trip into the high spiritual realms of life, to generate, in the process, a great deal of spiritual wealth, and to have the value there in the spirit realm when you arrive. What we are saying is that it is possible to get paid for taking the trip. Further, it is possible to use spiritual wealth to produce physical wealth. Spiritual wealth does not convert directly into physical world wealth; but it can be used to purchase the opportunity to gain physical wealth. By wealth we do not necessarily mean money. Spiritual wealth can be used to acquire the physical world life you wish to have. The other side of that statement is that any physical world wealth you may have has been purchased and is being supported by a like value in the high spirit realms of life. It costs to come here, it costs to be here, and it costs to go home from here.

One of the cycles of life that is so often repeated is this: One lives a very good spiritual life in the physical world and gains from that life considerable spiritual wealth. Returning to the high spirit realm after physical world life, one uses that spiritual wealth to purchase an abundant physical life and comes again into the physical world with considerable wealth. But the new life of wealth and prosperity is spent in grand living and indulgences, and the spiritual bank account is not replenished. In fact, it is often completely depleted and, when returning again to the high spirit after physical life has again ended, one finds that his wealth is all used up and he must start all over again.

Active meditation generates more spiritual wealth than any other type of meditation. Active meditation allows one to keep much more of the spiritual wealth one generates than any other type. Active meditation allows one to ride in one's OWN vehicle, which is much less expensive. Your efforts produce much more spiritual wealth and, the trip costs a great deal less.

Audinometry is a form of active meditation that goes beyond classic meditation. If all you want is a better physical world life, practicing Audinometry can make this possible. It can show you how to generate the spiritual wealth necessary to purchase the opportunities that make a better physical world life possible. Audinometry can show you how to generate spiritual wealth and how to hang on to it, so that not only do you get the benefit of it here in the physical world, but also the benefit of it in the high spirit realms when you return there. YES, IT IS POSSIBLE TO TAKE IT WITH YOU!

Life has many phases, avenues, and vistas. Eventually, one realizes that life, really has cycles that lead one through phases, avenues, and vistas, often to return again and again to the same place, the same places. Through the same situations, and in relation to the same other beings. Eventually, one realizes that there are no new vistas, no new avenues, and even very seldom any new people. Life can become tedious and repetitious and dull. But life's momentums will carry you on, for this is part of the cycle, too.

Life is a game. Life IS a game. LIFE IS A GAME. It is a very serious game on the one hand, and on the other hand there is not a serious thread in any of it. Life is an illusion, but it is more real than you are. There, we have told you a great TRUTH, and lied to you in the same sentence. You are real. The energy of life is real. And the being who created you and the energy of life is real. All else that you may perceive is illusion. NOTE: we did not say life is real; we said the ENERGY of life is real. The life that is apparent to you is only an illusion, but the illusion is more real than you are as long as it moves you. As long as the illusions of life move you, you are not alive. You are a seed of life.

The illusions of life entertain you. They thrill you. They deceive you. They destroy you. But it is all an illusion for the illusions cannot touch the seed. The illusions of life cannot destroy your essence, your life seed, NOR CAN THEY CAUSE IT TO GERMINATE. It is only when, tiring of the illusions of life, one seeks to find the ENERGY of life that the seed can germinate and the cycles of illusory life can give way to the greater cycles of spiritual growth. But pause a day on the path of spiritual growth and the illusory cycles will overtake you and start in your illusory life again.

Creation is a school that uses illusory life as a series of games designed to teach you how to find and use the energy of life, and in so doing, become alive and real in your own right. Physical world life and spiritual world life are both but parts of the great illusory life. The faith religions teach that one must learn to believe. Believe and you can have a better life. It is true. Believe and you can have a better life than the non-believer has. But believing at its best is only part of the spiritual welfare system. You will never get rich doing it. Oh yes, there is some profit to be made. If you can bring others into the system, you will get a percentage of their welfare checks credited to your account spiritually. This can be used to purchase a better life. But for the time it takes, the pay is actually rather meager.

Any effort one makes, however small, to reach beyond the illusions towards the energy of life is rewarded, and the closer one comes to the real energy the greater the reward. Faith religions say you must learn to believe, and this is true. But life ever says to you that you must come to know yourself, for yourself. You must learn to master the very fire of life. When you have mastered the fire of life, you will be real. You will be alive. And you will be free. Real, alive, and free, all this in your OWN right.

Audinometry is a path of disciplined practice, not an academic study. It is a mountain to climb, not an opinion or belief. It takes you to a real place. This practice does not fit within the confines of any religion, theology, or philosophy. We teach you a series of techniques based on spiritual science that will open the inner realms and help you understand the many regions of spiritual life above the Earth plane. Through a progression of lessons, one is brought ever closer to one's own divine maturity, learning not the philosophies of life, but the mechanics of spiritual life and the divine progression.

Learning not theories and theologies, but the practical mechanics of how to do it. This is basically what this program is all about. How To Do It.

Audinometry is meditation on the inner sound current, doing the related techniques that develop your spiritual sensibilities, managing the energy structures of your true being, and managing the energy of your life. Putting spirit level value in your spirit level bank account can bring you a quality existence in the here and now, and allows you to invest in a very bright future for yourself. Remember, LIFE is not just the physical body. Life is the quality of aliveness in the energy, velocity, and perception of your consciousness.

This program has a foundation, a platform, and a launch pad. It is ready and waiting for the person who wants the best possible spiritual growth on the planet today. Now that is a very strong statement to make, but we can say, assuredly, that if we knew of a better program, we would be doing it. It allows you to put gas in your gas tank, to turn on the lights, start the engine, and fly where you want.

We consider the Audinometry program within the Elan Vital Academy as the graduate school of sound current meditation. Think of it as getting a Doctorate degree in meditation. But that is not the whole truth. At the beginning we present it as if it is only about meditation, but in reality this program is beyond meditation. Meditation is the entry point, but the real secret of Audinometry is that it is the next series of steps beyond where meditation could ever take you.

There is much to learn, to experience, to comprehend, and to grow within this program and within yourself. Be good to yourself and allow yourself to spiritually breathe as you take all this in and become more tomorrow than who you are today.

The path to life is only a path if you walk it,
only smooth if you run,
only beautiful if you fly,
only goes somewhere if you dream,
only goes up if you laugh,
only has music if you ...

LISTEN

Remember, YOU must free yourself ... the magic is within YOU!

Because we do consider the Audinometry program to be the graduate school of sound current meditation, and since the program does require a very high degree of commitment, this seven-book series, THE TOOLS OF IMMORTALITY, serves as an informative introduction to the program. In these seven books you will be presented and familiarized to many of the experiences, concepts, explorations, and comprehensions of the Audinometry system. In this way, you will be better educated and enlightened as to whether this type of meditative program is one that is right for you and your spiritual future. Of course, that decision is always yours.
